GUM FACTS

Candy and snack food vending sales in the United States:
$500 million annually with 3-year growth of $52 million

Americans will spend $2.7 billion on gum in 2009.

With worldwide gum sales of over $5.4 billion in 2007, Wrigley is the world's largest gum company.

Gum is projected to be the fastest growing confectionery over the next five years.

Americans chewed 6 billion servings of gum in 2008:

20 packs of gum for every man, woman & child in the United States.

The Wrigley family of gum products accounts for almost 60% of all chewing gum product sales in the United States.

An experienced manufacturer, supplier and distributor of high quality vending machines, WDVending is a specialized and focused company with the following goal:

- ✓ To establish a Wrigley Branded Gum Vending Machine distributor network with a significant presence in every major urban and town center in America.

Our mission is to sell Wrigley brand gum products through a unique vending system which offers three distinct advantages to our distributor network:

- ✓ Wrigley gum products' strong brand recognition and market leadership, combined with the support of Wrigley's national marketing program and promotional initiatives, which includes a licensed rights contract executed by Wrigley directly for use of graphics on the machine.
- ✓ Wrigley Branded Gum Vending Machine's durability and dependability – our machine is manufactured in North America with careful attention to assembly and extensive quality testing.
- ✓ WDVending's exclusive Wrigley Branded Gum Vending Machine – we are the only company that can offer you this unique opportunity.

WDVending is a Canadian-owned company, with our sales, marketing and operations located in St. Michael, Barbados, providing sales support throughout the United States.
